

Language Access Card

People who are Deaf or Hard-of-Hearing have the right to interpretation services free of charge. This card will help service providers identify a person’s language before calling an interpreter for assistance. This right is defined under Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA).

Use this card for:

Emergency and nonemergency services

Social services organizations

Public schools and universities

Doctor visits, hospitals, and pharmacies

Courts (city, county, state, and federal)

Public assistance programs

Public transportation

Public services (water, trash, electric)

Instructions

Cut out the card below or take a photo with your phone. Keep the card with you at all times. Use it to ask for an interpreter. This card is not required to receive services.

I speak American Sign Language (ASL).

Please contact an interpreter so we can communicate.

I am Deaf/Hard-of-Hearing.

People who are Deaf and Hard-of-Hearing have a right under Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) to free interpretation services.
